INVIGORATING CORDIAL, DURELY Vegetable in its composition. invaluable Cordial is extracted from Herbs and Roots, which have been found after years of ex perience, by the most skillful physicians, to be essessed of qualities the most beneficial in the diseases for which it is recommended; and hence whilst it is presented to the public as an effica cious remedy, it is also known to be of that character on which reliance may be placed as to its safety. In cases of Impotency, Hæmorrhages Disordered Sterility, Menstruction, or Suppression f the Menses, Fluor Albus or Whites-or for

Debility arising from any cause, such as weakness from sickness, where the patient has been confined to bed for some time, for females after confinement, abortion or miscarriage, this cordial cannot be excelled in its salutary effects or in loss of muscular energy, irritability, physica prostration, seminal weakness, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, sluggishness, decay of the procreative functions, nervousness, &c., where Toxic medicine is required, it will be found equa if not superior to any compound ever used.

To Females.-Henry's Invigorating Cordial is one of the most invaluable medicines in the many complaints to which females are subject. It as sists nature to brace the whole system, check ex-cesses, and creates renewed health and happiness Less suffering, disease, and unhappiness among ladies would exist, were they generally to adopt the use of this cordial. The common way of moistening stamps with the tongue is very disagreeable and inconvenient; also the usual way of wetting sheets in a copying book, by using a brush which has to be dipped in water, is inconvenient and very difficult to give paper an even moisture, which is very desirable for copying letters. This article obviates these difficulties, besides being useful for various other purposes. It is also perfectly simple and cheap, and must come into general use.—[Boston Post.
